

Thou, Saviour, art one with God the Supreme

« Psalms and Hymns and Spiritual Songs » n° 515

♩ = 110

1. Thou, Sav-iour, art one with God the Su - preme,
2. How great was Thy love, how wond-rous Thy grace !
3. Thou, Lord, Who wast dead, art gone up on high,

His Son ev - er - last - ing, and e - qual with Him ;
Thou cam - est from hea - ven to save a lost race ;
And cap - tive hast lead our cap - ti - vi - ty,

In - vest - ed with glo - ry, on high Thou dost sit,
The sharp-ness of death Thou didst o - ver - come —
Lord, now with - out ceas - ing we wor - ship Thy name —

While an - gels a - dore The and how at Thy feet.
Didst yield up Thy breath, and sleep in the tomb.
Give ho - nour and bless-ing to God and the Lamb.

Words from
William Hammond (1719-1783)
Meter : 10.10.11.11
Hymns Selected and Revised in 1928 n° 422

Music from
Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)
Tune : O praise ye the Lord (Laudate Dominum)
Hymns Ancient and Modern n° 308