241   Saviour, through the desert lead us

(BRADBURY. 8.7.8.7.D.)

Thomas Kelly (1769-1854)   William Batchelder Bradbury (1816-1868)

♩ = 92

1.   Sav - iour, through the des - ert lead us,   With - out Thee we can - not
2. Through a   des - ert waste and cheer - less,   Though our des - tined jour - ney
3. With a   price Thy love has bought us,   (Sav - iour, what a love is go ;   Thou from cru - el chains hast freed us,   And hast laid the ty - rant lie,   Rend - ered by Thy pres - ence fear - less,   We may ev - ery foe de - Thine !)   Hi - ther - to Thy power has brought us,   (Power and love in Thee com-

low :   Let Thy pres - ence Let Thy pres - ence Cheer us all our jour - ney fy :   Nought shall move us, Nought shall move us, While we see Thee, Sav - iour, bine) :   Lord of glo - ry, Lord of glo - ry, Ev - er on Thy loved ones through. Let Thy presence, Let Thy pres - ence Cheer us all our jour - ney through.

nigh. Nought shall move us, Nought shall move us, While we see Thee, Sav - iour, nigh.
shine ! Lord of glo - ry, Lord of glo - ry, Ev - er on Thy loved ones shine !

Altenate Tunes : Regent Square, 39 ; Melbourne, 2.