James Boyd (1851-1936)

Charles-Henry Purday (1799-1885)

♩ = 90

1. O teach us, Lord, Thy search-less love to know, Thou, who hast died.
Be - fore our fee - ble faith, Lord Je - sus,
show Thy hands and side ;
That our glad hearts, res - pon - sive un - to Thine, May wake with all the power of love di - vine.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked as quarter note = 90. The lyrics are: "1. O teach us, Lord, Thy search-less love to know, Thou, who hast died. Be - fore our fee - ble faith, Lord Je - sus, show Thy hands and side ; That our glad hearts, res - pon - sive un - to Thine, May wake with all the power of love di - vine." The piano accompaniment consists of chords and simple melodic lines in both hands.

2. Thy death has brought to light the Father's heart,
And ours has won ;
And now we contemplate Thee as Thou art,
God's glorious Son !
And know that we are loved with that great love,
That rests on Thee in those bright courts above.

3. Thy flesh is meat, Thy blood, blest Saviour, shed,
Is drink indeed ;
On Thee, the true, the heavenly, living Bread,
Our souls would feed,
And live with Thee in life's eternal home,
Where sin, nor want, nor woe, nor death can come.

Alternate Tune : Lux Benigna, 262.
